JUNE 2022

COMMUNICATION IS KEY

Communication is key to success in every part of your life. Good communication is essential to building and maintaining relationships, being informed and understanding. Poor communication leads to frequent misunderstandings, unnecessary frustration, and damages relationships.

Communication is not just verbal, we communicate in several different ways and via different platforms:

- Verbal
- Non-Verbal
- Written
- Visual

Can you think of times when there was a negative outcome because people were on different pages? Misunderstandings are the base of most movies and sitcoms – don't let your life turn into one because you aren't taking the initiative to listen and understand!

THE KEY TO COMMUNICATION

LISTEN

- Actively listen to what is being communicated. A lot of times people are forming their response and reaction instead of absorbing what is being shared.

ASK QUESTIONS

- DO NOT MAKE ASSUMPTIONS!!! Ask questions, and it may just be to yourself:
- Why is this information being shared?
- Why is this information important to me?
- Is this source credible?

UNDERSTAND

- Understand where the source is coming from/their point of view
- Understanding doesn't mean agreeing
- Understanding will help you to successfully communicate in response
- In certain situations, no response is appropriate

With good communication and understanding you can make sound choices for yourself and avoid a lot of negative conflict!
